LB 1003

SENATOR SCHROCK: There will be those.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And those people probably are just too poor to go to parks so they should not be going to parks, should they?

SENATOR SCHROCK: I...I would hope that's not the case, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, if somebody can't afford something, they shouldn't just have it given to them, should they?

SENATOR SCHROCK: Well, it doesn't appear that way.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And what do we...we don't care too much about old people, do we?

SENATOR SCHROCK: I think we...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: They're just kind of in the way and they encumber the ground, don't they?

SENATOR SCHROCK: Well, I think we care about old people. And, Senator Chambers, you and I are getting closer to that stage of our life.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Don't they walk slower?

SENATOR SCHROCK: Yes, they do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Don't they have infirmities that cause people to look away from them?

SENATOR SCHROCK: Sometimes they do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, why would we want people like this in the parks, taking away from the beauty that people expect to find in the parks? They don't want to go out there and see what amounts to a portable old folks home, do they?
